

New Name, Same Great Service!

Dear Valued Customer,

It is our pleasure to announce that Perkins Pacific and Southwest Products- Service and Engine divisions, are going to market as ...

OWP is a Washington based company as Olympic Western Power. Over the course of the next several months, our employees will begin answering calls with the new business name. We plan to launch our new emails and website in February. Throughout 1st quarter 2021, you will see the additional branding rollouts made to stationary, invoices, uniforms, vehicles and buildings.

We look forward to continuing to provide you the best service and power solutions in the industry.
